

Services provided by Last Resort Detective Agency Limited.

Last Resort has over One Hundred (100) highly trained Security Officers (male and female) on staff. They are properly screened and trained in the field of Company Security, and are all approved by the Private Security Regulation Authority. Additionally, we have applicants on file, in order that we will always be able to meet our clients' needs.

Armed Security -: We will provide you with trained armed security officers for your every need, whether at your business place, or at home to stay with you and your love ones. This service is provided twenty four (24) hours a day in uniform or plain cloths.

Unarmed Security -: For alertness, politeness or professionalism, we offer the best trained unarmed security officers. This service is provided twenty four (24) hours a day in uniform.

Canine Handlers -: The best and most trained canines are ready and waiting with a qualified handler to full your need for stage shows, matches or just to protect your place of business or home.

Private Investigation -: Well trained ex-members of the Jamaica Constabulary Force C.I.B department are ready to do any type of investigation, whether criminal or private investigation.

Collection -: We will collect any outstanding debts for you.

Courier Service -: We will transport your cash or valuable item anywhere and at anytime with the best protection for you at a reasonable price.

Aviation Security -: We will provide you with the best security officer to watch your aircraft, whilst on the grounds of the Airports.

Background Check -: Want to find out something about someone, we will do background checks for you at a reasonable price.